Thanks giving

I am asked all the time what I am thankful for. Sometimes I have it chosen for me "video games, sports" my friends would guess. However, I cannot choose for I am grateful for everything that I am lucky enough to receive. I am grateful for my cats as I'm grateful for my friends and friends as much as family.

I would not say I am grateful for toys because I do not have all ~~of~~ of the toys in the world. However I am more grateful to be sharing the wonders of the world with others than I would be if I had all of them to myself. We should all be grateful to the gifts we share to this day. If not for these gifts of love we would not be as happy as we are on this holiday.

I am also grateful for my family and my friends. I am grateful for my two cats, my mom and my dad, my uncles, my aunts, my sister, my cousins, my grandparents, and my friends. I do not know what life would be like without these people. I am truly grateful for everything I have.
