

Thankful for Nothing, And Everything

Thankful for nothing,
and everything.

Thankful for the nothingness which gave us the opportunity to give us everything.

I'm not saying that I am not thankful for
anything,

I'm saying that I am thankful
for nothing.

The idea of nothing.

If you have a blank canvas, a clean slate, you can make or create anything you want in the world.

Make nothing to something.

Make nothing to everything.

I am thankful for nothing,
and everything.
