What I Am Thankful For This Year

There are so many things that I am thankful for this year. There are also many ways to show how you are thankful. I am thankful for the important people and other things you need to survive.

First off, I am thankful for the shelter, food, water, and clothes I have. My parents provide these necessities that I need to survive.

Your family and friends are very important because they make your life better. I am so grateful to them. My family makes my life amazing by providing me with unconditional love and support with any decision I make. My friends make my life a better place by making me happy when I am sad. They always bring laughter in my life.

Being healthy is another reason why I am thankful. Being healthy is a big part of your life. To stay healthy you should take care of your body. One way to take care of your body is to make sure you are eating the proper foods like fruits and vegetables. Thank goodness I have my parents around to provide me with healthy food.

Having the proper education is also very important. If you do not have the proper education, you will never be smart. You won't get into a good high school or college, and you will not have a good job.

As you can see, I am thankful for many things. I will always cherish these things.
