What am I Thankful for This Year

I am thankful for the most important things in the world. My strong loving family, and my health are the two things that I consider to be the most important.

I am thankful for my twin sister and my three year old sister. We have so much fun together. I love them a lot. We have so much fun together. My great grandpa, named George, was an amazing person. I am grateful that I was fortunate enough to meet him. He recently passed away. He taught me many valuable lessons.

I am thankful for my parents who recently decided to send me to a private school. This place is amazing. I enjoy going to school every day.

In the world we have a lot of bad things happening around us, but I am very thankful that my parents can provide me with a safe place to live in. They also taught me proper manners and to respect the less fortunate. I am courageous because of them. I know they will always be by my side.

As you can see, this year I am very thankful for all the people in my life that fill my days with love, happiness, respect, and health.
