

This Thanksgiving I am most thankful for...

my parents that love me and are grateful for a home, food, shelter and the things I have and am happy that I have friends that are kind, good, healthy, and go to a good school. I also appreciate that I learn from good teachers, have freedom, fun school activities, a life, and people who saved and helped me.

By: Julia Green