

I Am Thankful For...

Do you know what you are thankful for? In this essay I will tell you what I am thankful for. For an example, I am thankful for my family because they help me with every everything and love me.

In my first paragraph, I will tell you what I am thankful for at home. One thing I am thankful for is my family because they help me with schoolwork, homework and by protecting me.

Another thing is they give me everything I need such as clothes and food/water.

What else could you ask for if you have a loving and caring family?!

In my second paragraph, I will tell you what I am thankful for at school. My school's name is Osmond A Church, or you can call it PS124. First, I am thankful for all the teachers I had since Kindergarten. They have worked very hard with me and have taught me very important things I need in life. Also, I am thankful for my friends. One of my best friend is Ashlyn. You
