

I am thankful for my family. They are nice and they take care of me. I am especially thankful for what my mom buys me. In particular, I am thankful for my cousins. Above all, the most important thing I am thankful for is my family. Another thing, I am thankful for is my sister. I am thankful for my family because they are nice and they take care of me.

By: Kenneth Castillo