

Sofia Alexandrou
Ms. Linden

November 5, 2016
English6

What Are You Thankful For?

Do you ever think about the world and how crazy it might be?

Or, how our society has changed? Well, I have. Many children and adults have no money to live or to pay for things. When I think of them, I realize how fortunate I am. Many children around the world are dying because of starvation and illnesses. That gets me thinking how fortunate I am to have food and insurance to go to the doctor. I go to the dentist and the doctor at least once or twice a year. Many kids and adults are not as fortunate as me. I believe if you believe in God you will have good things coming your way. I am thankful for having such an amazing life that I wish I can share with others. I am thankful for all the food and clothes I have. I feel if we give a little away to others, it will come back in return. I am also thankful for waking up everyday healthy and having a good education. My parents play a huge role in my life because I know they care for my sister and me very much. I know they want the best for us . Lastly, I am thankful for such great friends. My friends are always there when I am sad or mad. My friends are sometimes better than my own family. Let's also keep in mind our furry friends. Last year, my family and I saved my dog Bibi from a horrible person from Alabama. Now, she acts like a queen. We call her Queen Bibi. We showed her love and that everything was okay. She now shows lots of love for us and thanks. Loving an animal makes God smile. So, when you are in a room with your family and a table of food you are about to devour just remember how grateful you are. Not everyone might be rich or have a lot of money, but try to help others in need. I am thankful for many things .but there are too many to list. A simple act of kindness will make someone's day a whole lot better. Each day I try to help others, no matter how small the act. So give thanks and Happy Thanksgiving!!!!!!