

Keith Holley JR. I am thankful to all the Troops served are country without the veterans we would not have the rights we have today so I am thankful for what you do or what you did for our country so I thank you for the rights we have today thank you for what you do.

by: Keith Holley