

Thankful

This Thanksgiving, I have lots of things to be thankful for. The thing that I'm most thankful for is the amazing opportunities that my family and friends receive. There are people in this world who aren't nearly as blessed as we are, and people who don't understand how blessed we are. My parents work to protect me and no matter how they feel they get up and go to work because I want to go to school.

There are people in this world who aren't as fortunate as I am. They might not get to go to school and become successful. I can go to pay for college and some people can't afford food. People who want to hurt my country can't because a soldier stopped them by risking their life. I can walk to my friend's house knowing I will get home safe and some people are afraid to go outside.

This Thanksgiving I'm thankful for everything anyone has ever done for me. I'm thankful for my friends and family for always being there when I need them. I'm thankful for my parents for providing great opportunities. I'm thankful for my teachers for helping me prepare me for the future. I'm thankful for the soldiers who fight every day to protect me, but most of all I'm thankful for living in America. America is the land of the free and the home of the brave.
