

Thankful Essay

I am very thankful! I am thankful for all of the food and water on my table. I am thankful for the clothes that are put on my body. I am thankful for the roof over my head. But, I am most thankful for my! My family are the one and only thing I can talk to about all of my deepest problems. Every single one of them is there for me and can comfort me in need. They give me the love and the feeling of having a family to love and be there for me! I love each and every person in my family! They always give me good presents on Christmas and for my birthday! They give me the hugs and kisses I need! How they can buy me everything I want weather it's a video game or a pair of sneakers! But, what I like the most about my family is that they all are always in my life, loving me, and helping me through my problems! I have everything i could ask for!
