What I am Thankful For

There are many things that I am thankful for this year. I am thankful that I am an American. Living in this great country allows me to have many rights that I would not have in other countries. The biggest right is the right of freedom. This allows me to be who I am and allows me to have dreams for my future. I am also thankful because there are many men and women who are willing to sacrifice so much to protect my rights and defend my country.

I am also thankful for my family. I have a mom, dad, two brothers, and a sister who love me more than I deserve. My brothers are a lot of fun to be around. My older brother helps with sports and my sister helps me with a lot of things. She is like my second mother. I am also thankful for my friends. I have so many friends that let me be who I am. I never have to pretend to be someone else for them to like me. My friends like me for me.

I am grateful that I get to wake up everyday to a family that loves me. I get to go to a school I like and have friends that are so accepting of me. This is all because of the great country I live in. I am thankful that I get to be me!
