

Thanksgiving Essay

At this time of the year it's important to take time to be thankful for everything we have. Have you ever taken time to think of what is important in your life and makes you who you are? There is plenty of things to be thankful for, for me I am thankful for traditions, family, and freedom. Let me tell you a little about why I am thankful for these things.

First, let's talk a little about what makes me thankful for my family. My family consists of my dad, my mom, even my brother and of course my two dogs, Bam-Bam and Teddy. I'm thankful for my family because they teach me new things like my religion, my family traditions, the history of my family and many more. They also keep me safe and take care of me by having a house to comfort me, feeding me, and tells me stuff to keep me safe. They also drive me around to different events, such as sports or just fun events.

Now let's get to freedom and why I am thankful for it. I'm thankful for freedom because I have rights and privileges to do all the stuff I do today. I have the privilege to go to school, play sports, have a home, have a religion and do many other things that some kids may not be able to do in other countries where they don't have freedom.

Last but not least, traditions, I'm thankful for traditions because they make everybody have something special. For me there is traditions such as New Year's Eve, Christmas, Thanksgiving, my birthday, and much more. For example on Christmas, I open presents in the morning and then my family and I head to my grandma and grandpa's house. We don't stay there for long and then I go to my other grandmother's house and eat dinner there, after that we go back to my other grandma and grandpa's house and eat dessert there. When we are finished eating dessert we play a game with dice and go home.

Now that you've heard what I'm thankful for, make a list of what you're thankful for. Remember it's a good time of the year to think of what you're thankful for. After all they must be important in your life if you are thankful for them.
