Hey guess what It's almost Thanksgiving and I would like to tell you a few things I'm thankful for. One thing I'm thankful for is to have a home because I know that many people don't have any place to live so I think I am very lucky to live in a house. Also, I'm thankful for my teachers that give me a fantastic education every day . Last but not least give thanks to my family that cares about me so much and pays for my education. Have a happy Thanksgiving.

THANK YOU JESUS

Happy Thanksgiving!
