

What I am thankful

For

I am grateful for lots of things such as being alive, having good teachers, having a Mom and Dad. I am thankful for being alive because when I was born I couldn't breathe at all I had to have surgery. I am also thankful for having good teachers why that's because if I wasn't thankful for having good teachers I would not have good grades and I wouldn't be smart. I am thankful for having a Mom and Dad because some kids don't have a Mom or Dad so now I know why sometimes my Mom and Dad are telling me to behave good ,with them because sometimes I scream at both of them. These are the things that I am grateful for and why I am thankful for these things.

I am thankful

For...

The clothes that give me warmth

My family that loves me day and night

We argue but never get into a big fight

The food that is put in front of me

The cars that my parents drive

So they can get to their job

To make money for the family

The friends that I have

To cheer me up when I am sad

My mom and dad

They always make me feel glad

My education that comes from school

Some people think its lame but I think it's cool

I am thankful for a lot of things

I can't name them all

But I will tell my family what I am thankful for this coming fall

What Are You Thankful For

It's the time of year we all get together
to have friends and family, a bond of love forever.
Always remembering the ~~things were~~ grateful for ,
because people don't have things who are poor.

Be thankful for what you have because if you won't it can go away like that. The fall leaves are falling to the ground green, yellow, red, and brown.

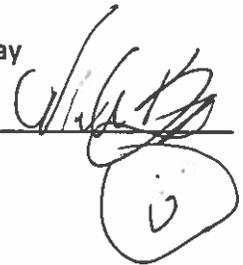

That's when you know it's thanksgiving time.
Happy thanksgiving everyone remember to always be kind.

What am I thankful for?

My family is really cheerful but never really happy.

My Family is only happy when they get together.

My Aunties and Uncles don't live near me so they don't come as often.

When they say will come when they don't my heart is usually broken.

That's why I like Thanksgiving because it's the gift that keeps on giving.

I see all my family always happy on thanksgiving.

What are you thankful for?

Thanksgiving is a day to appreciate the people who love you, care for you and teaches you and for that you should be grateful and take a moment and say thank you. I am thankful for my mom because she cares for me and loves me we might have some bad times sometimes but we will always love each other we have been through rough times and good times but we are always together and without her I would not be writing this thanksgiving essay and thanking all the people I love and the people who help me. The second person I am thankful for is my stepfather he helps me and teaches me whatever I need to learn and he works very hard to keep my family healthy and even though he is a little over protective I love him and he loves me .I am also thankful for my father even though I don't get to see him a lot I know he loves me and cares for me and would do anything for me. I am thankful for my family friends and my teacher. Also many people don't have parent's family members like some of us do and kids if you do have them you should go up to them look them in the eye and say thank you and never leave the house mad or angry. This was my thanksgiving essay I hope you enjoyed it, thank you.

My thanksgiving poem

Something's that I am thankful for is having food on the table, being with my friends and family on thanksgiving, also I am thankful for having my family and friends on thanksgiving. Also I am thankful for having a house so my family and friends have some where to eat. Another reason is that I am thankful for have shoes and clothes on me. I am grateful for having a place where I can get a good education which is a school, a high school, and a college. If you have a good education you can get a nice house, a good job, and even a nice car. These are some things that I am thankful for.

“I Am Thankful For.....”

I am thankful for my life and everything I have in it. I am thankful for food, a school, a family, clothes, friends, a house, and knowledge. There are a lot of kids who have this and a lot who don't. There are also some kids who have a lot but don't even recognize it and then they're not grateful. The kids who are most grateful usually get the most of good things, and the kids who are the least grateful usually get less or the least of life. That's what I'm grateful for. I am grateful for having a family that's nice enough to give me the best in life from the past, to the present, and hopefully the future. I'm thankful for God's blessing that came as for me, and for my family. I can't be anymore grateful for God bringing me here and getting me off to a good start. They gave me food, friends, love, family, clothes, and entertainment. All things I need and because I'm so grateful, from time to time I get gifts. Gifts from: Birthdays, Christmas, good grades, last day of school. I also get presents just for being me. I'M SO GLAD I'M HERE!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Thanksgiving Essay

What am I thankful I for is my family and friends, and last I am thankful for god that's with me. Every day I'm thankful that I wake up to see my mom; grandma and everyone I see. I'm not just thankful for my family and friends I'm thankful for what people gives me .There are lots of people in the world that are homeless. They don't have a job no food shelter and even the worst a family. One day I was in the car with my mom, I saw a homeless man with jeans that were ripe and tight his t-shirt was dirty. He was so skinny it looked like he never ate before. He is always asking people for money. I am thankful I have something to eat drink clothes to wear and a roof over my head. Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday. People eat have fun talk to each other and spend time with your family. Every year me and my family play's games in the living room while my grandmother cooks food in the kitchen. This year I'm thankful to be with my family. And this is what I'm thankful for.

What I am thankful for

Thanksgiving is a special holiday to give thanks. I am thankful for my parents sacrificing themselves to take extra care of me, my brothers, and my one sister. My loving parents bring me to school each day. I am also thankful for having food on the table so my family can eat. In some places such as, the Middle East, people don't have the food that we do. I am thankful for my parents purchasing a lot of things for me. I am also thankful for my parents working everyday so they could get money and pay for things, such as bills. I am also thankful for my other cousins in Florida. They helped us when we took the vacation to Miami, Florida. They helped us when we got there and supplied us with food, water and somewhere too sleep. We had a sleep-over. I am thankful for my cousins in Elmont that also help me and my family. I come to their house every day I come from school and we have fun. They also give us snacks.

Another thing I am thankful for is the brave men and women that are serving and protecting our country in the United States Military. I thankful for my uncle that is in the US Army. He is a foot and ankle doctor that helps injured people with their foot and their ankles. I am thankful for the men and women in the Army, Marines, Air force, Navy, Coast Guard. Thanksgiving is a special holiday to give thanks and this is all what I am thankful for.

What Am I Thankful For?

For my brothers and sons,

The chances I have, for which others have not,

The food I eat lay on the table,

My mother and sister who I love and adore, and the stories they tell, which leave me asking for more,

Friends and family that surround me with love,

Or when my dad lets me steal a scoop from the ice cream tub,

My education and the teachers who provide it,

For the snow that falls which brings me great joy, and a cup or two of hot chocolate for later.

So when Thanksgiving comes, I will remember what I am thankful for

What are you most thankful for?

Thanksgiving time is here

It's now time to thank the people who has cared, love, and shared

I am thankful for a lot of things

My family comes first, my brothers and my parents,

The things I get,

The roof my parents put over my head,

The cloths my parents get for me,

The food I get,

I love what my parents make at home than what I eat outside of my house

Because it's is cooked with love.

I am also really thankful to go to such a great school and have a good education

It's all appreciated!

I have chances others don't

A family like no other and love is constantly shared throughout the family.

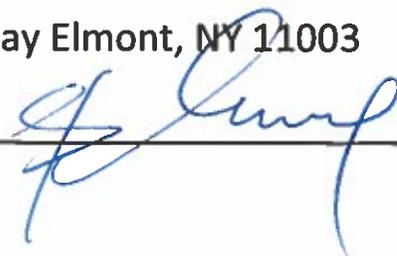

These are the things I am thankful for.

What are you most thankful for?

I am thankful for being alive today. I am thankful for my parents, my sister, my brother, my cousins, and my aunts and uncles. I am really thankful for all my family. I am thankful for holidays such as Christmas, Thanksgiving, Easter, and of course my birthday. I'm thankful for many things but I'm really thankful for foods such as chicken, curry chicken, curry goat, rice and definitely macaroni. I'm also thankful for me having a good education and for me being who I am today and who I and who I will always be. I am also thankful for the clothes on my back, shoes on my feet and for hair on my head. I am very thankful to have a home and to have a bed to sleep in. These are the main things I am thankful for.

What I am more thankful for

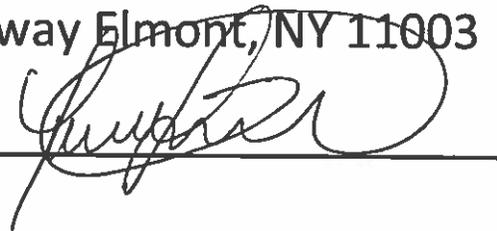

My family is a very kind family and I know for sure yours is to, our family's try to give us all we want. Even if they can't they will try their best. I am thankful for my family and for my teachers. My teachers make me learn and approve my goals and work. If it was not for my teachers or my family members I will not know the entire math facts, how to read, or even how to write, and I will not even be in 6th grade. I am very thankful for how hard my parents and teachers work for everything not only for me not only for me but for all of us. I am so glad that my parents are here for me and my teachers are here for us. This is what I am thankful for.

WHAT IM Mostly THANKFUL FOR

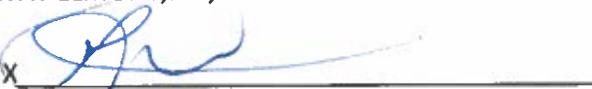

Many people are thankful for birds and the bees and the ocean and the sea but I am thankful for life. Life is like a dream and like a boat rowing down a stream. Life gets hard just like a rock and not much time like the tic- of the clock. Life is sweet like apple pie but soon sadly we`ll all die but we have to make the most of it. Life is very hard but if you work hard anything is possible if you try and this is why I`m thankful for life.

WHAT I AM THANKFUL FOR

Today I am here to say what I am thankful for. I am thankful for many things. Here are a few things what I am thankful for, (my health and most of all my parents). As I said I am mostly thankful for my parents. I really appreciate how lucky I am to have such wonderful parents.

My mom cooks in the morning for me to take to lunch. She also cooks for my dad to take to work. After that she goes to work. Luckily for her she does not work every day. My mom does not sleep the whole night, only when she is off. Sometimes my dad and I go to buy the food to cook. Then when my mom comes home she cooks it. Sometimes my dad cooks it.

I am thankful for many things. For example,

(1).My strength (2).my health (3).My life (4).my parents in which who I love!!

What I most Thankful for.....

I'm Thankful for Thanksgiving and my mom because she keeps me living.

My brother's Derian and Dany are best bros ever.

When we have big party's we all join together.

My mom and I people say we look alike

My brother interrupts he always wants to start a fight

So, this is what I'm thankful for my brother's and my family.

What I'm Thankful for...

There are many things I'm thankful for. I'm thankful for the family I have. They love me even when I act crazy and make big or small mistakes. I'm thankful for my younger sister and older and younger brothers that love me so much (I think). My little sister is only six months old and she is very sassy. If my brother and I are doing something she doesn't like she hits with her small hand and yells at us (in words I don't understand). My older brother is very annoying but he does take care of me. He gets me the food I like, he helps me with my homework, and he always gives me "good" advice. My little brother doesn't live with me he lives with my dad but I do love him. He is a little big for his age. He is eight months old and learned how to crawl a few weeks ago. I'm thankful for my mom and dad too. My mom is always taking care of us even when we do things that aren't so smart. She gets me everything I need like food and clothes. I don't live with my dad but he still gets to see me. It's always fun hanging out with him (even when he tries to act "hip"). Finally, I'm thankful for my clothes and the roof over my head. Those are some of the things I am Thankful for (can't name them all).

What I am thankful for...

I am thankful for many things. I am thankful for having a family that cares about me. My family gives me food, buys me clothes, and supports me. My brother is in 4th grade and he plays with me, I help him with his homework and he can be annoying sometimes.

During thanksgiving, I go to my cousin's house and we celebrate thanksgiving together. We play games on our laptop with my brother. We also fight with each other but we forgive each other and we go to sleep. The next morning we eat breakfast together and then we go shopping or we stay at home. Sometimes, my cousin comes to my house for thanksgiving and we eat lunch and dinner together.

My mom and my dad support me on drawing. When I was in second grade, my mom let me go to an art school on Saturday and I would show her my drawings. My dad worked in my uncle's restaurant in Connecticut and he would come home on Sunday night. On Monday morning, he would go back to work. Now we all live together. This is what I am thankful for.
