

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle

"Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle" are three key principles of sustainable waste management, aiming to minimize environmental impact. Reducing involves using fewer resources and avoiding unnecessary consumption. Reusing means finding new purposes for items instead of discarding them, and Recycling converts waste materials into new products.

(with plastic)

Without Plastic

10 reasons why you should Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle

1. Good for our economy.
2. Creates Jobs
3. Reduces Waste
4. Good for the environment
5. Saves Energy
6. Preserves Landfill space
7. Preventing Global warming
8. Reduces water pollution
9. Protects wildlife
10. Creates new Demand.