

Do you want to know what I am grateful for? I am deeply thankful for being at The Lowell School. I am thankful for being here because of how I grew as a student here. I have also become good at things that I wouldn't have dreamed of being good at when I attended my old school. I am grateful for my parents and dog. I feel this way because of how much they support and comfort me. I am grateful for my life. I feel this way because I have a chance to experience the world and do things I love. I am grateful for rain, the sun, the clouds, lakes, oceans, and trees. I am grateful for the earth. I am grateful for that because it is the world around me and what helps it. Also at the bottom are some more things I am thankful for.

I am grateful for The Lowell School. I feel this way because I grew so much here. I am doing way better here than I was in my old school. I also feel like I belong here more than in my old school. I am grateful for the teachers here who educate me. I always felt out of place when learning Spring, but I didn't fully know that while I was there. I just felt like a puzzle piece that wouldn't fit in the puzzle. I feel very happy here, too, because I am doing so well here. I am a more confident student here also. I am also way more comfortable here at Lowell.

I am grateful for my mom because she always tries to cook meals that I like. She is also the one who brought me into this world. Another reason why I am grateful for my mom is that she is always there to support me. She is always there to teach me life lessons when they need to be taught. She is also my best friend. I love her so much, and she is there to help me with work. She is always there to cheer me up when I need it. I always have her there for me. I am also grateful for my dad because he is always there for me. He is also an important part of my life, like my mom is. He is also always there for me. He is a great dad, and he is also supportive. I am also grateful for my dog. I am grateful for my dog because he is like an emotional support animal. He is not an official one, but he is kind of like one. He is one to me anyway.

I am grateful for my life. One reason is that it allows me to do things I love. Another one is that I feel like I am going in the right direction. I feel like life is bringing me towards the thing that I am going to do with my life. I am also surrounded by people who like me for who I am. I have support and education in a good environment. I am loved by my family and friends. I am friends and family to people who make me happy. I am glad I can have an education too. I have the things I need to be successful and happy. I am happy with and appreciate the things I have. I have a lot of support. I am where I need to be to be happy with my life. I also have a lot of help from my family when I need it. I also have a house with a roof, a bed, and couches. I am allowed to be me; none of my friends or family members tries to change me.

I am grateful for rain because it keeps plants alive and gives them extra water. Another reason why I am grateful for rain is that it gives us humans and animals water to drink. I am grateful for the clouds because that is where rain comes from. Another reason is that they can let you know if a storm is coming because they will change their color. I am grateful for the sun because that is what keeps our planet warm. Another reason why I am grateful for the sun is that it is one of the things that keeps us humans, plants, and animals alive. I am grateful for trees because they clean the air we breathe. Another reason is that they take in carbon dioxide. I am grateful for the earth because it is the planet I and everything that I am grateful for, and more animals and things live. Another reason is that it gives us food and water to help us survive. I am grateful for the atmosphere because it is the source of the air we breathe. Another reason is that it also helps to keep plants and animals alive.

To conclude my essay, here are ways I show my gratitude for everything I am grateful that I mentioned in my paragraphs, and some more things I am grateful for. I show my gratitude to my parents by helping and supporting them. I show my gratitude to my dog by petting and hugging him. I show my gratitude to my school by respecting and listening to my teachers. I show my gratitude for trees by not spilling things on them. I show my gratitude to the earth by not polluting the ground. Another way I show my gratitude to the earth is by eating the fruits and vegetables I like. I show my gratitude to the atmosphere by not polluting the air. I show my gratitude for my life by living it and staying on the path that is best for me. I show my appreciation for the clouds by acknowledging them and drinking the water they brought back down. I show my gratitude for the atmosphere by breathing it in. There are actually more things I am thankful for, like horses. Actually, I am thankful for dogs in general. The sky, my house, my friends, I am grateful for everything I have. I am thankful for horses because they can be used as transportation, and they are also companions. I am grateful for dogs because they are always there for their owner. I am thankful for my friends because they also support me. I am thankful for the sky because, like clouds, it also changes its color. It is for them to let you know what time it is and sometimes when a storm is coming. You have to treat your dog right. Also, you should even treat your house with respect. shouldn't ignore the clouds and sky when they change color. I am sticking up for these extra things to show my gratitude.
