

What Makes me, me by Arthur Z 651

what makes me, me is my Mom,

My mom prepares me for the upcoming challenges.

what makes me, me is my Dad,

My dad helps me with tasks and hard things.

what makes me, me is my brother,

Even though he doesn't want to talk to me, he still inspires me and helps me.

what makes me, me is my cousin,

He inspires me just like my brother and is very playful.

what makes me, me is my friends,

They develop relationships with me and talk to me whenever I need it.

what makes me, me is everyone I know,

I'm very thankful for the people that develop strong relationships with me.

Thank you.

Thanks!
