Senator Addabbo Thanksgiving Poem

The Most Important Things

Thankful for all the things I have and own.
My parents, my sister, my dog and my home.
With my parents support, they help me grow.
They teach me things that even I didn't know.

My sister, we play, we laugh all the time.
We stay up all night till we see the sunshine.
My dog comes to greet me, we named him Jax.
He lies down next to me, and then we relax.

My family, they're special, I'm lucky to have them.
They shine bright in my heart, just like a gem.
