This Thanksgiving I'm thankful for food and the chance to learn everyday. In other countries kids and adults don't get the chance to experience the best education or have the ability to eat healthy, fulfilling meals.

Meanwhile, we are lucky and have holiday celebrations where we mostly feast on good scrumptious meals. While some people in America dread going to school, other people would love to be in our shoes and get the great education we are afforded in America .

Imagine having to eat unhealthy foods and dirty drinking water everyday that's what kids,teens,adults,and even the elderly in other countries have to deal with everyday. So before you complain about the food you eat or you having to get up early for school remember to be grateful and know there are people in the world who would love to be in our shoes.
