

Thanksempathy

By: Chase Gillingham & Aedan Atkins

Thanksgiving brings us near,
In fall's glow, we gather here.
The table's filled, but let's also share,
Empathy and kindness show that we care.

We all have stories, both strong and tough,
A simple smile can mean enough.
When we lift each other, we stand tall,
In this warm space, there's room for all.

As we give thanks, let's widen the embrace,
With small acts of care, we make a safe place.
In this season of joy, let's all stand strong,
Together in kindness, where we all belong.
