Thankful for Family

I am super thankful for my family. To break it down I have a great dad, a loving mom and a snuggly sister. I would not want it any other way. I have so many memories with them. To be exact, nine years of memories.

I'm super thankful for my family. I am thankful for my dad because we go on date days to get breakfast at Tim Hortons or McDonalds. He also lets us come to the fire house. He says when I am older he will let me come to work with him. I am thankful for my mom because she feeds me, takes care of me and keeps me safe. Sometimes she makes muffins they are delicious. I am thankful for my sister because she snuggles with me and plays with me. And I am thankful for my grandparents too.

My favorite memory is when we went on a cruise to Bermuda on the Norwegian Aqua. It was a week-long cruise. I loved it so much. Now I will go into extensive detail. There was a kids club that was open all day except at meals. There was an aqua park and a pool and two hot tubs. There was an aqua coaster. It was kind of disappointing but it was still fun. I also liked when I did the aqua coaster with my dad. It was super fun and then later on the cruise I went again with my mom. I had dinner with my family every night. I have my dad's parents eat dinner with me and my sister at Hudson's and sometimes just me and my sister and my grandparents eat dinner when my mom and dad go out on date days.

All these reasons show why I am thankful for my family.

What am I thankful for? I'm thankful for my parents and veterans who sacrificed their lives for us. Here are reasons why.

My parents are supportive and will always be there for me. They put a roof over my head, food to eat, raised me as a child, if I didn't have my parents then I wouldn't be alive! At my soccer game my parents cheer me on and they put a smile on my face every day.

There is a special day called Veterans day, for veterans who sacrificed their lives for us. We should be proud that we live in a free country. However, in other countries like Russia and North Korea there is no freedom.

Your parents take care of you and they still have their own things to do. Veterans sacrificed their lives not thinking about their own. So you should be thankful about that.

Thankful for Family

Thank you mom, dad and my sister Neva. I never want to leave your side because you have given me love and hugs and compassion all the nine years of my life. I am grateful for my family, all of them are the best things that I could ever have.

On a lovely Spring afternoon me and my family were outside and my dad was making hot dogs, mom was setting the table and me and Neva were talking. Just in the moment breathing in the clean Spring air. It was so peaceful and calming I wanted to stay there forever. With my family on that beautiful Spring afternoon.

Neva and my mom and my dad are always there for me, for every fall I had every mistake that happened they were all there. Even after an argument they still would love me and hug me and I never want that to end.

So yeah I love money and friends but after every thing every single time, I would choose my family cause they were the ones who are ALWAYS there. Family are not just the people who are blood related, family can be the people that show up and actually care. Family is what makes you feel at home, not alone and forgotten.
