Thankful On Thanksgiving

On thanksgiving I always realize how lucky I am to have toys and electronics. Thanksgiving is my reminder that I don't need toys but my parents still got me some.

I am thankful for my parents who give me food, water, shelter and not just what I need. but things that I want, toy cars, pets, toy plushies, and more. My parents don't only just give me what I need but what I've asked for. My parents do a lot for me so I'm thankful to have so wonderful parents.

I am also thankful for my brothers. I know they can be annoying sometimes but I still look up to them. They walk with me to fun places too like Wendy's, Target, mall, and the park. They also help me with homework. That's why I'm thankful for my brothers.

I'm also thankful for my grandpa and grandma. They somehow know how to light up a room in seconds. They take me to the park, let me sleep over whenever I want and the kicker they are retired so I can spend as much time as I want with them. I'm so thankful for my grandparents.

So you've heard it all of course I could drag this on for hours, but there are the people I normally spend time with and I love every second of it. So these are the people that I am thankful for.
