

I Am Thankful For My Family

By Emma Grace Stergiopoulos

Sometimes in life the most important thing is family. I am most thankful for my family because they give me a place to live, they show me that they love me, and last but not least my family is always there for me. Those are the reasons why I am thankful for my family.

I am thankful for my family because they give me a place to live. For example, they give me a big cozy house to live in. Secondly, they give me a house to live in which is warm and filled with Kindness. Lastly, they work hard for the house that we live in.

I am thankful for my family because they show me that they love me. Especially when they give me love it brings me joy and happiness. I notice when they give me love it makes me feel special. In fact when my parents give me love and tell me that they love me it makes me feel bright.

The last reason I am thankful for my family is because they are always there for me. First, my family is always there for me when I need advice. Second, my family is always there for me when I want to spend time with them. Last but not least my family comforts me when I'm sad and unhappy.

To wrap it up, I am thankful for my family because they give me a place to live, they show me that they love me, and last but not least they are always there for me. In my opinion my family is the best, amazing, and so kind. I don't know what I would do without them.
