There are many things that I'm thankful for. I spend most of my time inside, where I eat delicious food, rest in bed, and engage in hobbies and activities. I'm thankful for a loving and supportive family, and a nice and comfortable home to live and rest in. I'm grateful for the many video games that I'm able to play, as well as TV shows and movies that I watch by myself and with others, and books and comics that I enjoy reading as well. I'm grateful for art and creativity, and for having a creative spirit. I'm grateful for the internet which provides an avenue into connecting with my many interests. I'm thankful for toys and collectibles which brighten up my room and represent things I enjoy.

Outside of my house, I'm thankful for nature and the science that helps me understand it. I'm thankful for warm sunshine and cool breezes, thankful for animals and plants. I'm thankful for being able to go to locations like movie theaters and arcades—I'm even begrudgingly thankful to go to school and have an education. I'm thankful for good people in the world, whether they be my friends and family or people I don't know. There are many individual things I have gratitude for, but overall I am thankful that I'm able to live a safe, healthy, and fortunate life.
