

Thankful Essay

Thankful is a word that means to be grateful for what you have in your life. I am thankful for my parents because they care for me. Another reason why I am thankful for my parents is because they put me in this school to get a good education and a great environment.

I am thankful for my family because they are always there for me and they guide me through everything. Spending time with them makes me laugh here and there. I love my siblings because they play games with me.

I love my family so much. I am thankful for them because they help me with my homework. Another reason I am thankful for my family is that they do a lot for me and help me with many things. The third reason I am thankful for my siblings is because I always get to spend time with them. I am thankful for my family because they support me in the sports I play like track, soccer, and jujitsu. The last reason I am thankful for my family is because they always buy me the things I need like jackets, shoes, pants and shirts. They also feed me healthy food.

I am thankful for school and my teachers because they help me with my school work. Another reason why I'm thankful for school is because my parents pay for it. The third reason I am thankful for school is for the lessons I learn. I am very thankful for school because it has such a really great education and relationship.

I am thankful for my friends because I have fun with them and talk to them whenever I want to have such a good relationship with my friends because I have known them for 10 years. They all respect everybody equally. There are not only friends there like my family because I have such a good relationship with them. They are there for me when I need them.

In conclusion, there are many reasons I am thankful. Going to a Catholic school, my family, friends, teachers, education and sports.

Sincerely,

Francesca Ragucci

5th Grade