

I am thankful for having a warm and safe place to live where I can feel comfortable. I am also grateful for having a kind teacher who helps me learn, friends in my classroom who make school fun, and good neighbors in my community. This Thanksgiving, I am excited to spend time with my family, enjoying food, and laughing together. I will always remember these moments as a family.

Hector