

Thanksgiving is a time to remember all the things we are thankful for. I am thankful for my mom and dad, siblings, and friends. First and foremost, I'm thankful for my mom and dad. My mom is always cheering me up when I'm sad or sick by hugging me. My dad is cool and always plays video games with me and makes the best food like spaghetti, sweet potatoes, and chicken riggies. Also I'm grateful for my siblings. My little brother, Gavin, is cute and crazy. He is always digging through the laundry basket. My big brother, Aiden, is super cool. He is always into football, and loves watching every single Bills game. My little sister, Kayleigh, is cute, and sometimes has weird potty humor. Finally, I am thankful for my friends. Caleb is a football guy, kind, friendly, and NOT a chill guy. Desmond is also a football guy, kind, and funny by telling good jokes. I am thankful for my mom and dad, siblings, and friends.
