

Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is about spending time with your loved ones like friends and family. You can show compassion and kindness by helping your family, passing food to people, and showing you care. If someone is having a rough day or something else, show empathy by talking them through it or helping them.