Thanks giving essay

I'm thankful for many things , like my friends , food ,shoes , clothes . Thanksgiving is a time to thank something that you are really thankful for . Like my mom I am really grateful because she is the best mom I ever had .

My mom is the one who taught me what is good and wrong. She is the one who taught me to stand up for myself . My mom matters to me because she makes my food and she taught me how to cook so when I grow up I can cook food for my family . She matters to me because she gave me a life to be in this world. She is the reason I am here and I am really thankful for that because without me my family would be happy .

She matters to me because she makes my food and she buys me clothes and she is always there with me when I am sick and when I have a bad day , she is like my best friend that takes care of me . My mom makes me feel supported because she is always there with me and she supports me when something is going on with me .And she helped me learn her skills when I cook like she teaches me how to cook faster and that if I get burned she said that is why you are a woman . This is how I learned how to cook , and what I learned to cook is vegetable soup , rice and beans , fried chicken and fires . And I know how to make a whole meal .

I'm thankful for that because I can make my own food and that could help me grow without my mom making my food and wasting her time on me cooking food . My thoughts before like I didn't know I knew how to cook. I thought it was going to be hard to make food but now that I know how to cook I think it is easy . I think this would affect my goal because I want to work in a restaurant while I am going to college .

This is why I am thankful for my mom because she is there with me and she taught me how to cook.
