

My Abilities That I'm Thankful For!

By Liliana LaConti

I'm creative because I love to do arts and crafts. I'm determined because I do things that are brave. I'm funny because I make people laugh. I'm lovable because I'm so sweet. Those are my abilities that I love.

But that's not all, I'm happy because I always have a good day. I'm kind because I always help people in need. I'm a hard worker because I give my bunnies hay, water and food. I also sometimes work at the Kids Club House, in fact that's where my grandma is a teacher. I'm also encouraging because I like to cheer people on. These are my abilities that I'm thankful for.
