

Autumn

Autumn is coming and leaves are falling on the ground, we hear birds chirping with a great lovely sound.

Halloween is here so let's dress up as a cat, monsters, vampires, witches, and even a bat

Thanksgiving is here we could eat and eat, we even ate some pie and finished it in a beat.

Mooncakes were eaten with lanterns everywhere, red lanterns shaped like turkeys, rabbits, and even a bear.

Everywhere I go the leaves make a crunch, and when we rake leaves that is always a bunch.

When autumn is over everything ends, until summer it won't happen again
