

Macie Fisher
A quality I have that I'm grateful for

My quality I am grateful for is my braveness. It has helped me do things that are hard but I push through it!

It was the day of the veteran's ceremony and I was making a speech, and introducing the Wire Choir, the orchestra and the flags for military branches. I was student council president and I had to speak in front of more than 500 people and the whole room was filled! I was so anxious! I've done lots of performances on stage but not in front of this many people!

I stepped up to the podium and started to speak. My hands were clammy and my heart beat fast. I took a deep breath and looked over at my parents and felt a little better. As I kept going I felt relieved and joyful inside because it wasn't as bad as I thought it would be. Then I felt brave and proud of myself for doing a scary thing. That is the quality I am grateful for!