

Thankful Essay

By Penelope Lema

What does it mean to be thankful? To be thankful means to appreciate what you have. You could be thankful for your family ,education ,friends,and that you have a home.I have so many things to be thankful for but these are my top three, my parents,friends, and school. My essay will be about being thankful for my parents, friends, and school.

Firstly, I am thankful for my parents because they take care of me, feed me,and they also buy me clothes.We always play together and watch movies.If they need help around the house i will help them.Most of all they love me so much and i love them too.

Secondly, I am thankful for my friends because we always goof off together and it makes me happy. They are special to me because they have always been there for me and comforted me when I was upset.We always share secrets with each other,and we play together during recess . One time when it was the first day of school all of my friends hugged me and said they missed me. This is why I am thankful for my friends.

Lastly,I am thankful for my school because I get to learn cool stuff. I like learning how to divide tens by thousands.I also like school because my classmates are very nice to me and my friends.School teaches me to be kind to others and be nice.

Also Father Jerome comes in on Wednesday and teaches us about religion.

In conclusion, this is why I am thankful for my parents, friends, and school. All of these reasons are very important to me.I am so thankful for all three of these reasons.
