

Thankful Essay

What does being thankful mean to me? Being thankful means to appreciate something or someone in a special way. Some things that I am thankful for are my family, my friends, my time at my school, Our Lady of Good Counsel, and my experiences playing sports. This essay will be about why I am thankful for all of these important things in my life.

I am thankful for my family because they are always there for me. Whether it is our Saturday morning breakfasts together as a family, our special nights out at Jody's, or our Sunday dinners at home, we always enjoy spending moments together as family. These moments with my family always make me feel cared for and loved. For these reasons, I am so thankful that my family is a huge part of my life.

I am also thankful for my friends, because we always have fun together and support each other. When I am with them, they make me feel welcome, appreciated, loved and joyful. My friends and I always laugh and have a great time when we are together. Recently, when I found out that I got a part in the school play, my friends were just as excited as I was that I got the part! In fact, they all reached out to congratulate me and to let me know that they were proud of my accomplishment. This made me feel supported. I am so thankful for my friends and for the moments that we share together!

Lastly, I am thankful for my education at Our Lady of Good Counsel and my experiences playing basketball. I am thankful for my education, because it gives me a chance to learn new things that will help me become successful in life. I am also thankful for my experience playing on the basketball team because I get an opportunity to have fun, be part of a team, and learn sportsmanship. I am very thankful for the important lessons that I am learning in the classroom and on the court.

I am thankful for my family, my friends, my time at Our Lady of Good Counsel and my experience playing basketball. To me, being thankful means appreciating the special things, people, and experiences in your life. In thinking about this essay, I have realized that I truly have so much to be grateful for and that I am very lucky. I hope everyone has something or someone to be thankful for!
