The three things I mostly are about are my family, friends, and my goddess like beauty.

I am thankful for my family. And a reason I am thankful for my family is because they are always here for me when I'm hurt. For example one day I was playing with my scooter and I fell. I hit my nose, eyebrow, and knee but my mom was there and helped me.

I am thankful for my friends because they are nice, forgiving, and helpful. A reason is that they are always here for me when I'm sad. For example one day someone was being mean to me but my friend Amyah helped me out!

I'm thankful for my beauty. I am because god made me beautiful. I appreciate it! An example is when I look in the mirror I say to myself 'oh my, I look so beautiful today!'

I am thankful for a lot of stuff but I'm thankful for all those three the most!

I am thankful for my mom. She makes my favorite food and she helps me do my homework. One time I ask if we can have spaghetti and she made spaghetti.

I am thankful for my 2 cats, Odin and Chyloh. They are fluffy and cute and they play with us. They take walks with us to the park and play with and go down the slide.

I am thankful for my family. They give me joy and food and gifts and love. We travel together to different countries and it's so much fun.

Does are the 3 things that I am really thankful for and I can't live without.

Another thing I am thankful is my friends. A reason I am thankful for my friends is because when I play outside the play with me and help me when I need. Like two days ago when I was lonely my friends came and played catch with me.

Another thing I am thankful for is my parents. A reason why I am thankful for my parents is because without them I wouldn't have been on earth. When I don't know how to do my homework they help me and make me food.

These are the three things I am mostly thankful for!

What I'm thankful for!

I could be thankful for the littlest things that I get. It's not about being there or not about spending time with your loved ones. Even if they are not here you can always be grateful for what they done for you. All I see is happy people that care for one or another person, which can mean a lot to them. What I'm thankful for my family, having to come home with a smile. Also having to go to school learn new things that can help me and others learn. Also the last thing I'm thankful for is god! for always waking me up everyday praying to him to give me good days. Having the freedom of speech where I can tell people how I would feel about them, and not trying to hide it away like it's a secret. That is what I would be thankful for every day, and to never give up on my dream!

WHAT ARE THANKS YEAR?

this year I'm very grateful for my entire family, for supporting me through everything and for being there for me during my worst moments. I'm specially grateful to my mom, who is always there for me through the good times and the bad. I also thank god, who has helped me through everything. Protects me from the bad, and will always be there for me no matter what I'm thankful for having a good education and for being able to learn new thing every day. I'm grateful for my teachers, who always have something to teach, who comfort us during difficult times, and who show us that life isn't always easy, but that we must keep going.
