

Shajid Shahrir 7L8

Addabo Thanksgiving Essay

I am thankful for a place to live. Not just for my house and neighborhood, but for this planet. This lone and rocky planet is home to animals, planets, extraordinary landforms, and most important, the human race and civilization. Even when the end comes, a new species will take over but still contain our legacy.