

Thankfulness Poem

By Simone Taylor

I don't like writing things like this
But I suppose I must
In writing what I'm thankful for
My fun has quite a bust
So let's make this quick
And speedy as can be
So we don't go on and on
Talking about me

I am thankful for my family
Thankful for my pets
Thankful for all the support
I get from all my meds
I'm thankful for the sky
And thankful for the sea
And now admittedly those two aren't Important as they seem
I really just need to fill space
Until I find an adequate place
To end this poem clean.
