

Thanksgiving

The person who made me think differently about myself helped me feel good, to feel unique in my life, and about my appearance. She makes me feel great because she contradicts the negative things I used to say about myself, and she makes me a confident person.

They were there for me through thick and thin, always there for me, even though they tease me a lot. That's how they show friendship, and they are very special in my life. If it weren't for my mom and my friends..

*Their names are Cindy Rivera Mejia
Jeniffer Menbreno
Melissa Alvarado Cruz
Nathalie Galo Lemus*
