

Be Thankful by Billy Gaxholli

Being thankful IS THE BEST! All should be thankful. I'm thankful for family, friends, dogs, and God. OH I forgot if you do not know Being thankful is being nice to others. So, if you are thankful people will be thankful for YOU!. Now let me show you what I'm thankful for.

I'm thankful for my family because without them I would not be here today. My family makes me laugh. My sisters help me do my homework and I am very thankful for that. My dad actually understands my humour and my mom is always there for me even when I am cranky and sick.

The next thing I am thankful for in my life are my friends. My friends are the best at cheering me up when I am sad. It is always nice to have people that know what it's like to deal with the pressure of school and homework. We always play video games after we finish our homework and I look forward to that everyday.

The third thing I am thankful for are my three dogs, Harper, Holly, and Frankie (bum bum). I am thankful for them because when I am having a stressful day they always lay with me and make me feel better. I am always happy to come home and see them waiting for me at the gate. They remind me everyday that they love me.

The last thing I am thankful for is God. I am thankful for God because he makes all things possible in my life. I find comfort in the faith he has given me. This faith allows me to make good decisions in my life. All of these things that I am thankful for in my life contribute to the person I am today.
