I am thankful for the blessing that have come into My life the how strict I was able to get And the money, My house Amy the fact that I Still have my mom With me till this day And everything that She does for me and the fact She held it down even When my father passed away.

these are my reasons...